 Extended Day (Kindergarten)

Kindergarten is a one-year experience occurring the year prior to first grade. Students are selected for the Extended Day class based on birthday cut-offs as determined by your home school district for Kindergarten. If your child turns five after your home district's cutoff, and you would like to have the advantage of additional classroom time, these new five-year-olds will be welcomed to attend both AM & PM session with no nap required (Primary Modified All Day). The new five-year olds would achieve admittance to the Extended Day class during the next school year (the year before 1st. grade).
